House In Final Action On Draft Law Provisions

House Vote For Draft 'Holiday' Seems Indicated

House Favor Appears To Be For Five Months Suspension Of Inductions

MEASURE WILL GO TO SENATE SHORTLY

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—The house scheduled a final vote today on legislation extending selective service for nine months, with teen-age boys exempted and all inductions suspended for at least five months.

The draft "holiday" would extend from May 15 to Oct. 15, while the selective service act itself would be extended from May 15, 1946 to Feb. 15, 1947.

After Oct. 15, the president may resume inductions if he finds that the armed services have been unable to obtain sufficient personnel by voluntary enlistments.

Tentative Action Completed

The house tentatively completed action on the legislation Saturday, but final votes on passage to the senate were postponed to permit absent members to be recorded. The house faced two votes when it convened. The first was on a recommitment motion to kill the bill which Rep. Short (R) Mo., was prepared to offer when the house adjourned Saturday. Short was not optimistic.

The second was a vote on final passage. No record votes were taken before final passage. The controversial "holiday" amendment, submitted by Rep. Vinson (D) Ga., chairman of the house naval affairs committee, was approved by a 156-133 tally vote.

As perfected by the house, the draft legislation contains the following major provisions:

- Major Provisions
1. Extends selective service from May 15, 1946 to Feb. 15, 1947 for men aged 20 through 29.
  2. Postpones all inductions from (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES

PA Newsc is told that this spring so far has established some sort of a record as a dry season. Rain is really needed, it is stated, the ground being quite dry at present.

Several bushes of red flowering quince, known as Firebush, are to be seen in full bloom. Mercer street hill between Lincoln avenue and Grant street. Violets are also in bloom, one observer reports.

Traces of the paper collection could be seen all over town Saturday evening, PA Newsc observed. Papers and pieces of paper were scattered around on both the downtown and residential streets like huge pieces of confetti.

Several hundred Lawrence county fishermen were out along the trout streams early this morning, taking part in the opening of the 1946 trout season. Among the streams drawing the anglers were the Neshannock, Big Run, Deer Creek, Hickory Creek, Taylor Run, and others.

One of the longest spring droughts in many years was broken this morning when a fairly good shower was noted, with the promise of more rain throughout the day. Only a half an inch of precipitation has been noted here since the middle of March, which is most unusual.

Fifteen Million Homes In 10 Years Is Aim Of Bill

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—A program for building fifteen million homes in the next ten years today was slated for Senate passage.

The lengthy and complex measure establishing a national housing policy was expected to breeze through the upper House under bipartisan sponsorship after only one day of discussion.

Introduced by Sen. Wagner (D) N. Y., Ellender (D) La., and Taft (R) Ohio, the bill would coordinate all federal housing activities under one administrative head in a national housing agency.

The housing program is designed to provide a decent home for every American family, with primary emphasis on improving the dwellings of low-income groups through both privately financed and public construction.

Provisions of Bill
To complement the emergency housing legislation passed by the Senate last week to meet immediate needs of veterans and their families, the present bill would:

Admits Killing Over Two Million At Horror Camp

NUERNBERG, April 15.—(INS)—Rudolf Hoess, commander of the Auschwitz horror camp, admitted before the Nuernberg war crimes tribunal today that he killed over two million Jews at Auschwitz from 1941 to 1943.

He said Hitler ordered the extermination of Europe's Jews in 1941. The apellike truth, testifying in defense of Security Police Chief Ernst Kaltenbrunner, declared that Heinrich Himmler witnessed mass killings at the Auschwitz camp, but that Kaltenbrunner was never there.

Hoess speaking in a curious falsetto voice, chided the court with accusations of atrocities committed at Auschwitz.

His testimony in Kaltenbrunner's behalf fell down when he admitted that execution orders received by teletype at the murder camp were frequently signed by Kaltenbrunner.

Claims German Research Station Operates In Spain

LONDON, April 15.—(INS)—The London Daily Worker reported today in a Paris dispatch that an atomic research station staffed by German experts was in operation at Portugete, five miles south of Bilbao.

The article said its information came from Spanish resistance sources. The article appeared after the Warsaw radio ridiculed Spain's offer to allow Allied investigators to make an on-the-spot investigation of Polish charges that such a research station was in operation in Spain.

Dr. W. E. McClure Preaches Sunday

Former Pastor Is Speaker At Anniversary Services At First Presbyterian

LARGE AUDIENCES ATTEND SERVICES

For Palm Sunday services at the First Presbyterian church commemorating the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the present church building, Rev. Walter Emerson McClure, D. D., pastor of Memorial Presbyterian church in St. Louis, Mo., delivered the sermons to the congregation at both morning and evening services.

Dr. McClure was pastor of First church for the decade 1924-34, and on his return to New Castle for this anniversary occasion a congregation of nearly 1,000 overflowed the capacity of the church auditorium for morning service.

Morning Text

Taking his text for morning service from the 14th chapter of Exodus, "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward," Dr. McClure said that an anniversary occasion is one when we not only look back but forward to the years to come. "I would like to see a congregational resolution to go forward," he urged.

Rev. Robert M. Perry, Ph. D., assisted at the morning service.

"Now let the children sing the song of the church," he said, and the choir and all hymns used in the service were those sung at the church building on Sunday, April 12, 1936.

Evening Service

For his sermon in the evening Dr. McClure took as his text Proverbs 22:28, "Remove not the ancient landmark which thy fathers have set."

In spite of changes there are many principles which guide, he reminded the congregation. The church deals with the abiding realities of our way of life, he said, are private ownership of property, the separation between church and state, the Christian home, the church with respect for it and allegiance to it, and Christ as Saviour.

Rev. Robert M. Patterson, D. D., minister of Central Presbyterian church, assisted at evening service, and Central church congregation shared in the service.

Senator Seeks Concessions For Loan To Britain

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—Sen. McFarland (D) Ark., today promised a floor fight on the proposed British loan in an effort to gain for this country the commercial use of bases built by the United States on British territory.

McFarland looked for strong support when he offers an amendment this week making the 3.34 billion dollar loan conditional upon such a concession from Great Britain.

The Arizona senator asserted that adoption of his proposal might well end British negotiations of a separate "base" agreement before the house is called upon to pass upon the loan itself.

Stelle Asserts Legion Will Not Drop Its Battle

National Commander of The

MEMBERSHIP OF FOUR MILLION SEEN

Reiterating his promise that the American Legion will continue its battle for those veterans who do not have a chance to take up their own fight with the governmental agencies charged with their care, National Commander John Stelle of Illinois impressed the 1,500 Legionnaires and their friends who were present at the annual National Commander's banquet in the Cathedral of St. Francis Saturday evening with the fact that the interests of the disabled and the widowed and the orphaned of World War II are in good hands.

Commander Stelle also reiterated his statement that in this battle with the particular governmental agency charged with caring for the veterans, namely the Veterans Administration, that there is nothing personal between himself as head of the American Legion and General Omar Bradley, its leader. He recalled how the American Legion had done battle following World War I to help their disabled and wounded comrades of the first world war to get justice from an indifferent nation, and how it had finally secured a grouping of governmental agencies set up to help the veterans, under one agency, the Veterans Administration.

No Progress In Efforts To Get Parley On Coal

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—Federal labor officials gave a "no progress" report today on their efforts to get John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators back into negotiation on a new mine wage contract.

With the strike of 400,000 miners entering its third week, one labor department representative said the coal situation "is right where it was when Lewis walked out of the conference last week."

The official said a request from Secretary of Labor Schwechenbach probably would bring the parties together again, but there have been no developments to indicate that such a meeting would be worth while.

Schwechenbach is attempting to bridge the miners and operators from their stalemate over health, safety and welfare issues and get them to agree in advance of another joint conference "to discuss the same thing at the same time."

Huge Crowd At Atlantic City Easter Forecast

ATLANTIC, N. J., April 15.—(INS)—An overflow post-war crowd was expected by Atlantic City officials today to pace the boardwalk in the traditional Easter parade following a Palm Sunday preview which was rampant with color.

Milady's hats—bright flowered affairs with swirling veils—took top honors yesterday, with luxuries for beauty and comfort as the temperature hinged on the low fifties. More than 125,000 persons trod the boards regaled in holiday finery mingling with the throngs were the fashion judges, headed by New York's Maggie McNeill, recently chosen as one of America's best-dressed women, who awarded gardenia corsages for the best ensembles.

TO CONVINCE BRAZIL JAPS

No Nation Can Stand Alone During Atomic Age Declares Truman

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—President Truman called today for a bold program of inter-American economic advancement as the surest guarantee of peace.

The President in his address to the governing board of the Pan-American union declared that no nation can stand alone in the atomic age and asserted that the alternative to cooperation is "complete devastation."

Good Neighbor Policy

Mr. Truman told the representatives of the American republics, gathered in the great Hall of the Americas, that the United Nations principle is built on the good neighbor policy initiated by the late President Roosevelt. He declared: "Based on those foundations the United Nations now has been launched on its career. I know that it will succeed. It must succeed."

The President asserted: "Before us now lies a new era in which the power of atomic energy has been released. That age will either be one of complete devastation, or one in which new sources of power will lighten the labors of

Martial Law At Changchun

Civil War Conditions Reported As Prevailing
In Manchuria

CHUNGKING, April 15.—(INS)—Hope of a quick cessation of armed clashes in Manchuria appeared dim today on the basis of reports telling of the troubled situation in Changchun, capital of China's northeast province.

A Central News Agency dispatch said that Chinese garrison commander at Changchun invoked martial law after the Russians completed evacuation of the city yesterday as previously agreed. He estimated that 30,000 Chinese communist troops were waiting to seize the city in the wake of retreating Soviet troops.

Now Open Battlefield

The attitude of communists on the Manchurian situation was set forth yesterday by Communist General Chou En-Lai, who told a news conference that the area is now an open battlefield.

Chou, charged that nationalist troops were using their authority in Manchuria to launch a civil war. General Chou, however, emphasized that communist factions are willing to cease hostilities if nationalist will also cease and begin political discussions on disputed areas in Manchuria.

Chou also expressed the belief that the return to China of General George C. Marshall will ease the situation, but said the American envoy will find things "more critical" than when he left to report to Washington. Marshall is now enroute back to China.

Dock Fire Causes Loss Of $4,000,000 At English Port

LIVERPOOL, April 15.—(INS)—British fire brigades battled a stubborn blaze at the Merseyside dock area today after flames destroyed more than $4,000,000 worth of stored equipment.

Some 800 vehicles, including many American jeeps, and 13,000 bales of cotton were burned as the fire raged through an inland sorting area 12 miles from Liverpool.

Smoldering remains of the baled cotton and the piled up wreckage of ruined storage sheds prevented firemen from getting at the heart of the blaze. Officials said the nature of the material involved and the inability of firemen to approach the blaze might make extinguishing of the fire a matter of days.

Iran Ambassador Will Follow Orders

NEW YORK, April 15.—(INS)—An Iranian spokesman said today Ambassador Hussein Ala would follow "to the letter" any instructions he may have from his government on its dispute with Russia.

In the face of reports from Tehran that Iran would request the U. N. security council to drop its case against Russia, however, the spokesman declined to reveal just what these instructions might be.

Nor would he say that any new instructions had been received.

Iran And Spain Issues Confront United Nations

Twin Headaches For UN Security Council On Re-suspension Today

IRAN'S CASE WILL BE TAKEN UP FIRST

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, April 15.—(INS)—The United States and Great Britain were still determined today that Soviet Russia should give the United Nations Security Council a complete report on May 6 concerning the withdrawal of red troops and agents from Iran.

This decision was reached in the face of press reports from Tehran that the Iranian government was going to ask the council this afternoon to withdraw completely the Russian-Iranian case from its agenda.

NEW YORK, April 15.—(INS)—Russia versus Iran, Poland and France versus Spain.

These were the twin headaches confronting the United Nations Security Council today as that august international body reassembled to invoke world peace and security.

Deliberately well-developed diplomatic confusion was the order of the day. Anything can and will happen when the gavel falls at Hunter college this afternoon.

Iran's Case First

First piece of business will be the Soviet Union's demand that little Iran's protest be eliminated completely from the security council calendar. Russia has agreed to remove all of her troops from Iran by May 6, and is now calling on the 11-power security council to drop the whole business.

A week-end leftist Tudeh party coup in protective clothing, wherever a large piece of Iranian territory bordering on the Russian frontier went into pro-Soviet hands, complicated the situation.

The United States and Great Britain are determined that Russia shall give an accounting on May 6 concerning the Iranian situation. Russia is equally determined that the whole matter be dropped.

BERKELEY, Calif., April 15.—(INS)—A group of 110 Army and Navy volunteers, who will be the first to go ashore on Bikini atoll following the atomic bomb tests, were at the University of California today for a series of lectures on radio activity and other subjects.

The volunteers, wearing specially devised protective clothing, will go ashore in invasion boats after the test bombing and will carry instruments to record radio activity.

The showers soaked him to the hide and strange though it may look, the trout dug in behind a rock deep in the little brook. ### Professor Ends Life After Quiz On Wife's Death

Near the body was a 22 caliber rifle and 10 notes, one of which was addressed to Prosecutor George A. Spencer. This note maintained that Dr. Zech was innocent of his wife's death, and offered the proceeds of his estate for a complete investigation of the case.

House Begins Debate On Move To Extend OPA

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(INS)—The house today opens debate on the bill to extend the life of OPA—one of the toughest legislative hurdles to be faced by congress during the current session.

Administration forces were uncertain of the outcome of their repeated demand that the law be continued for another year without any changes.

See Restrictions

But the temper of the house, as evidenced by hearings before the banking and currency committee, indicated that the administration will lose its fight in the house, and that the OPA would be restricted legislatively in at least some of its pricing and decontrol policies.

House action was slated as the senate banking committee opened hearings on OPA extension with Economic Stabilizer Bowles called as the first witness.

As approved by the house committee, the bill would continue OPA for a full year after its present June 30 expiration date. The measure, in its present form, contains three amendments, which OPA Administrator Paul Porter has charged will increase the cost of living by two billion dollars annually.

Joan Crawford At Reno, Nevada

Dr. Harry E. Jessop Speaks To Ministers

Ministers Will Back State Sunday School Convention To Be Held In City During October

Dr. Harry E. Jessop, president of the Chicago Evangelical institute, addressed the bi-weekly meeting of the New Castle ministerial association Monday morning in the First Presbyterian church, Jefferson at North streets. The subject of the hour was: "How Far Does the Atonement Reach in the Experience of the Believer?"

Rev. Walter W. Gilliland, president of the New Castle ministerial group, had charge of the service, with Dr. G. S. Bennett conducting the devotional hour. Rev. A. E. Simon presided at the piano.

Outlining plans for the state Sabbath school convention, which will be held in the city from October 9 to 11, Robert Strickler, county president, asked for the cooperation of the ministers in this convention. The assembly went on record as backing the Sabbath school association in the coming convention.

Rev. Thomas J. Jones reported on the millions of starving people in Europe, with the ministers going on record as desiring to take tangible action.

Greetings were extended to Rev. Russell Schilling, pastor of the Hoover Heights Alliance church, who is leaving to take up his new charge in Greenville, Pa.

Rev. Edward Zook of the Highland Heights tabernacle and Rev. A. R. Elise of the Nazarene church of Webster, Pa., were introduced to the ministers.

manhood and increase standards of living all over the world.

Dangerous Adventure

"It is a dangerous adventure which we face. In it the people of all the American republics will have to play their special part."

Mr. Truman declared with emphasis that the peoples of the world have shown their willingness to use force, if necessary, to prevent aggression or the threat of aggression.

The President noted, however, that the exercise of force will not eliminate the causes of war. He said: "Underneath the Nazi madness were the material distress and spiritual starvation born of poverty and despair. These evil forces were seized upon by evil men to launch their program of tyranny and aggression."

The danger of war will never be completely wiped out until these economic ills which constitute the roots of war are themselves eliminated.

be boycotted by the major world powers.

Here again was a major world problem. France already has put a finger on Spain and Francisco De Los Rio, former ambassador to Washington, and until recently foreign minister of the so-called Republic of Spain, is in New York with charges that some 450,000 Spanish troops are mobilized on the French-Spanish frontier threatening France.

President Truman has stated bluntly that the Spanish issue is strictly political. State department spokesmen in Washington say Russia, through Poland, is trying to embarrass America and Britain.

Meanwhile, the Franco government of Spain has asked "friendly powers" in the security council membership to make an on-the-ground investigation of charges that German scientists are using Spanish plants to develop an atom bomb.

Poland and Mexico were certain to oppose this proposal. How other nations would vote was problematical.

Cholera Epidemic Feared In Japan

TOKYO, April 15.—(INS)—Allied headquarters officials warned today that occupation troops face the danger of contracting cholera as the result of the Orient's first serious epidemic of the disease in 20 years.

Officials pointed out that hundreds of Japanese have been stricken with cholera and that many are dying in repatriation areas.

The officials warned occupation troops that inoculations will not prevent contagion, but will merely reduce the seriousness of cholera.

It was believed the cholera was brought into Japan by repatriated Nationals from China.

The cholera epidemic hit Japan just as the country was recovering from a typhus epidemic.

Science and The Future
The long shadow of the atomic age was discernible at the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society in Atlantic City last week. The light that fell on Hiroshima has altered fundamental scientific thought just as it has affected political thinking throughout the world. And it has brought the scientists out of the laboratory into the realm of public affairs, for men whose brains have unlocked the power of the universe must feel a heavy weight of responsibility.

Perhaps more than any other group, the scientists understand the potentiality of atomic force as an instrument of death or an engine of production. They are virtually unanimous in certain conclusions, and their views should command respect in the momentous decisions that must be made by the people of the nation and the world.

The scientists see that national security and progress now depend on research more than ever. They agree with W. Albert Noyes, president-elect of the Chemical Society, who writes in a special convention edition of the Journal of Commerce that "it is our desire to maintain our position of preeminence none of us can afford to see scientific effort put under restriction as regards free discussion and free publication. We must avoid wastage of effort which would ensue if our scientists did not know what is going on in foreign countries."

On the positive side, the scientists realize that the government must play a constructive and cooperative role. As Dean Frank C. Whitmore of Pennsylvania State College writes in the same publication: "The prime need is for fundamental long-range research. We must search out the truth wherever it lies. Governmental emphasis on applied research must be carefully avoided. American industry is educated to the point of pushing applied research. One weakness of the future will be the lack of new fundamental knowledge to be applied by those in a position to develop and make available its practical applications."

The scientist's vision, unclouded by political controversy in his search for pure truth, is clear. He looks into the future, knowing that man has only himself to fear. The man of science has learned to submerge prejudices and narrowness in devotion to a common cause.

"Scientists," says Dr. Noyes, "do have a common language and can sit around the table in amicable discussion. Perhaps their example could alleviate some of the distrust so prevalent today." And perhaps their example may point to the day when the statesmen of the world, too, will speak a common language—the language of peace.

Why The Mines Stay Idle
Secretary Schwellenbach says further "spade work" will have to be done before it is any good to have the soft coal operators and John L. Lewis resume joint negotiations on ending the strike.

What the country wants to see is resumption of pick and shovel work to replenish the rapidly diminishing supply of coal so essential to our major industries.

For of all recent or continuing strikes this tie-up is the most potentially serious. Its possible devastating effects are only beginning to be felt. The railroads, utilities, agriculture, the automotive and steel industries and finally the public at large will be the helpless victims.

Mr. Lewis has a habit of pulling strikes when April 1 comes around—there were four in the soft coal industry in the single year 1943 when the nation was at war—but collective bargaining brought about agreements on wages and hours.

Why hasn't this strike already been settled? What is holding it up? The answer is to be found in Mr. Lewis' peculiar tactics. He has refused to engage in real collective bargaining.

In insisting that the question of a royalty tax on every ton of coal be settled first, and in his favor, he has blocked genuine collective bargaining and any prospect of an early agreement ending this strike.

Not only the operators are saying this, Secretary Schwellenbach admits that the charge is true. Discussion of wages and hours must wait until Mr. Lewis gets his way on what he calls the prime issue in this dispute. In the meantime many of the industries on which reconversion depends are preparing to mark time. The public should have no difficulty in fixing the blame.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Not Enough Territory
When it comes to making demands upon employers, President James C. Pettillo of the American Federation of Musicians can give most other union leaders cards and spades.

Now Mr. Pettillo comes up with a list of ninety-one demands upon eight major film producers. Among other things, he wants the salaries of film musicians doubled and their numbers more than doubled. Specifically, he wants the minimum pay of film musicians raised from $100 a week to $200—and a ten-hour week at that including rehearsals. And he wants each studio to employ at least ninety musicians instead of the thirty-five it is compelled by union order to employ at present.

Recently Congress passed the Lea bill, which included a prohibition against compelling radio broadcasters to hire more musicians than they need to perform actual services. Mr. Pettillo's new demands will convince more than one member of Congress that the Lea bill didn't take in enough territory.

OUR RUBBER PROBLEM
If the recommendations of a Governmental inter-agency committee are followed the synthetic rubber industry in this country is to stay the committee, headed by the former War Production Board Vice-Chairman, W. L. Batt, urges that measures be taken to assure the continuance of a major part of the plants turning out synthetic rubber.

The committee is now rubber-conscious as well. It recommends that a stockpile of the raw material be made and conserved for emergency.

Defense needs loom large in these proposals. The United States was caught off-guard in 1941 by the swift conquest of the raw rubber plantations by the Japanese. We were forced almost to improvise a synthetic rubber industry in wartime. We do not want a repetition of that crisis.

The case for the retention of the synthetic rubber industry is strengthened by the fact that it can protect us against monopolistic prices by any foreign raw rubber cartel.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

UN hall—exclusive—Mel Ott has just arrived in the ante room with a complaint that Mexico is threatening world's series security.

He says that what is happening to the Giants shouldn't happen to Azerbaijan province.

And as for Dr. Lange's complaint of millions of Franco's scouts drawn up along the French border? Ott says how about those Mexican scouts drawn up along the Rio Grande?

Ott charges that his players are being lured over the border with promises of real gold in the jungle and real bulls in the bull pen.

So many Giants have jumped to the Mexican league that Sonora will outplay the Bronx this year and the Polo grounds may feature polo.

The Washington Senators also are being raided. Look for Clagburn to have something to say about their trip south.

I understand that if Ott presses his complaint before the Security Council the Mexican delegate will walk. Gromyko up next.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Russia's Food Policy Is World's Puzzle

WASHINGTON, April 15.—With a kind of feverish haste, the search for food goes on around the world. The men responsible for trying to parcel out the world's larger are driven on by a sense of desperation. It is almost as though they could hear the cries of millions of children who go to bed at night with the gnawing of hunger unsatisfied.

Behind the suffering is the ever-present threat of political unrest. From Italy come reports of prolonged rioting up and down that tortured peninsula with desperate mobs storming UNRRA warehouses.

An inter-governmental agency is now trying to put together a food balance sheet for the next twelve months. Experts are searching for every ton of wheat and every ounce of oil. They do not share the optimism that President Truman expressed at his press conference.

Soviet Unknown
On their maps, one great area is marked unknown territory. That is the vast, sprawling expanse of the Soviet Union. Some rumors about Soviet food supplies leak out via England and Rumania. But as evidence for the experts, it is worthless. All requests for information have come up against a blank wall.

This sometimes goes to extraordinary lengths. The Russian delegate to the UNRRA Council meeting at Atlantic City, a private session with UNRRA officials, demanded to know why promised shipments of fats and oils to the Ukraine and White Russia had not been on schedule.

"The reason is very simple," he was told. "You have not furnished us with the information we expect to get from all countries requesting aid."

The need exists, the Soviet delegate replied, "and therefore there is no necessity for any further information."

Russian Wheat Sent
Against this background, the first Russian wheat has reached a French port. It arrived at Marseilles aboard the Soviet merchantman Kilm Voroshilov.

First reports had it that when American ships arrived at Black Sea ports to carry the grain to France, Soviet authorities announced it was not available. That was true. But the sequel revealed the motive behind the delay.

Soviet authorities wanted the first grain to be carried in a Soviet ship. Therefore, American skippers were made to wait. Now American merchantmen are steaming through the Dardanelles with Russian wheat for Hungary and France.

When the Kilm Voroshilov, named for one of the USSR's great generals, arrived at Marseilles, French Communists staged a celebration. Foreign Minister Georges Bidault was on hand. Everything possible was done to dramatize the sacrifice the Russians were making for France.

Each month, for many months, thousands of tons of U. S. wheat have been passing through French ports with no drama whatsoever. That wheat has been purchased here, just as France will purchase the Soviet wheat.

Besides being on obvious gesture to catch the Communist vote at the coming French elections, there are various interpretations of this Soviet gesture to France. In part, it may be a gesture of defiance to Britain and the U. S. The Russians have undoubtedly resented the fact that the two big powers working through the combined food boards, allocate all food.

Gain World Domination
Others see in the Soviet gesture the beginning of a planned use of Russian surplus to gain world domination. As vast new producing areas behind the Urals begin to yield surpluses of grain, the Russians have these reserves in a battle for supremacy. They would reward friendly countries by gifts. They would break commodity markets by dumping surpluses into world commerce.

An important factor in the Soviet Union would like to do just that. But there is evidence that this is not the dominant view of the Russian government.

When Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, was in Moscow, he had a three-hour talk with Stalin. Stalin spoke with seeming frankness about the post-war intentions of the USSR. What has happened in the intervening two years has convinced Johnston that Stalin was speaking frankly.

Stalin said that for a very long time Russia would consume at home the mounting volume of products from her factories and fields. That was emphasized over and over. So it's possible the wheat for France may be a shot in the dark rather than the beginning of a new policy.

COMMUNISM SUPREME

The race track for thoroughbreds at Santa Anita has become celebrated all over the world. The great handicap race, known as the "Santa Anita Handicap," is a race which closes the winter meeting. It might also be called the spring meeting. This is the race in which One Hundred Thousand Dollars is divided and an entry warranted it. There was something added this year. It required the full capacity of the track to take care of the racing horses, and nearly One Million Dollars was bet in the Mutuals.

The Sporting Editor of a San Diego paper who had attended the handicap was returning to San Diego by train. He took a coach seat alongside a middle-aged citizen reading the "Daily Worker." It did not take him long to switch the conversation to the big race.

"Another big capitalistic racket," said the stranger.

The Sporting Editor protested that it was an honest race, fairly run and judged.

"I don't mean that," said the stranger. "Why should one horse get a hundred thousand dollars and twenty other horses or so get nothing? It's just one more case of special privilege. One-third of these other horses probably were underfed, untrained and undertrained. They worked just as hard as the winner, didn't they?"

"But,"

"What they should do is to divide the whole pot among all of it with maybe a little more to the winner dog."

"But this was a race," insisted the Sporting Editor.

Let them enter around the track a couple of times for their own pleasure and the entertainment of the crowd, but treat them all alike.

"Hm, but how about the people that bet nearly a million dollars on the race?"

"Dude that up too, give all of the same. That's democracy."

But some bet a thousand dollars and some only two.

"Why should princes of privilege get more? Just because they had more to bet? That's capitalism for you. The government should take over this racing business and give all the horses and all the people an even break. Now you take in Russia, for instance."

The Sporting Editor gave up and mumbled another seat. He couldn't talk loud enough even if he had thought it worth while.

The earth shows again and again the charm of the seasons before. But the heartaches of mortals remain.

What was is to be never more.

Beloved, the robins are back. The plum trees and crab are in bloom. There's nothing the world seems to lack.

Of color and song and perfume. The spring is as fair as of old. The lilacs are lovely once more. But memories are all men can hold. And nothing can be as before.

Beloved, the springtime is here—The spring with the glory you knew. But I struggle to keep back a tear. For I have the place without you. The roses have waked from their sleep. The peonies show buds by the score. But memories are all I can keep. What was, is to be never more.

THE HOARDING COMPLEX
An embittered official of the Civilian Production Administration blames the women of America for a number of unnecessary shortages.

Morris S. Verner, head of the employment division, asserts that many women have developed under rationing a "hoarding complex" which is neither reasonable nor neighborly. They buy so much of the same supplies that other women get none at all.

It is a little rough to call women "plunkers" who buy a lot more stockpiles than they need and hoard them in bureau drawers. But a strong word may be suitable for the woman who hoarded to Mr. Verner that she had accumulated 30 pairs of socks.

Other grabbers, he says, are getting far more than their share of soap, canned goods and other items which are on the scarce list or may soon be.

It has been observed before that some women have a sort of allergy to securities. Its symptoms resemble hysteria and may develop into actual violence. The best cure might be a better sense of humor.

There was a cartoon published recently, showing a woman rushing headlong into a shopping cart and crying, "What is it, and how many to a customer?"—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

What People Say

By International News Service

WASHINGTON—President Truman: "It is the aim of our fiscal policy to balance the budget for 1947 and to retire the national debt in boom times such as these."

CLEVELAND—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower: "The United Nations—on the legalistic side at least—holds the hope that we will not have to send our sons onto the battle field again."

MANCHESTER, Eng.—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin: "The world is bereft of necessary commodities, and faced with famine conditions which produce terrible upsets. Starvation creates artificial conditions which hamper the peace-makers in their tasks."

ERIE, Pa.—Robert R. Wasom, president of the National Association of Manufacturers: "Industry will still inflation with production when permitted by the administration to do so. OPA has not stopped inflation, it is only trying to control it from the people."

HYDE PARK—President Truman: "We are determined to do all within our power to make the United Nations a strong living organization, to find effective means of alleviating suffering and distress, to deal fairly with all nations."

NEW YORK—Louis Brand, French Socialist leader outlines the position of France: "We must rebuild from its ruins a country which under circumstances unprecedented in world history, has been devastated by its enemies, its allies and its own citizens."

Courage Of Convictions
If but a few parents had the courage of their convictions, in any community, see who is a difference it would make. The young men knowing their parents' fear of being different, gang up on the parents. The children are organized "psychologically," the parents are not.

How very strange it is that parents also should feel a kind of moral excuse in the thought that other parents allow their children hazardous freedoms. If these parents stopped to reason they would easily see that what other parents do does not release them from their moral obligation.

Years hence, many of these cowardly parents of today will realize—and some will have it thrown into their teeth—how foolish they were to be such "foolish" parents. How many children now ten or twelve who suppose their parents are too strict with them will believe twenty years from now that they had been too strict.

Most of the children with reasonable strict parents now will call these parents blessed years hence.

Desirable Restrictions
Sit down, Mother and Father, and figure out what restrictions and requirements are desirable for the physical and moral welfare of your child under fourteen or so and then have the courage and acquire the skills to hold them strictly to these standards. Next time your child tells you, "No other parent is so strict," calmly reply, "It is none of my business what other parents do."

As one superintendent of schools said, after I had presented substantially the foregoing to his PTA, "If we could get the most influential parents of our nation to accept this we could soon have in our communities many more growing young citizens we could be proud of." I believe he was right. What do you think about it?

What right have we to expect our adolescent boys and girls when with the crowd of their age to stand on their own feet and be different from the rest of their gang drink or engage in sex indecencies. If the parents of these youths have proved for many years themselves too cowardly to be different from other parents in the guidance of their children, when they knew very well these other parents were wrong?

From Me To You

This is the day... April 15... if you would take a walk out through the country... especially along the various streams you would find many of our good citizens having the time of their life. Since early this morning men, women and children have been using all the skill they possess in trying to lure the beautiful little trout to strike their carefully prepared bait. Yes, friends this is the first day of the trout fishing season.

May some of you can't become enthused over the first day of fishing... or any other day of the fishing season... But to thousands of us, this sport of Isaac Walton is tops. This sport of trapping along streams will be covered and many more miles of trapping along streams will be used up before the curtain comes down on the season. There is nothing much finer than going fishing... even if you don't hook a one.

The peace and solitude and companionship of it all does a fellow good. If one is lucky enough to have a son or younger brother... or maybe a young chap in your neighborhood to take along... then you find that all the world is not just a bag of nerves... Oh but we envy the chaps who were out today.

No fishing talk would be complete without a little story... and we are reminded of an experience we had in March 1943. With our unit stationed in France during a few days of rest some of the lads decided to go fishing. Bait was hard to find and anyhow we didn't have too much time. So we visited the ammunition dump of the company and filled our pockets with bait—hand grenades. Along the stream we stationed our little party... two up stream... two down and two in between. At a given signal we let go with the bait... With a gasp the water churned and soon we started to pick up fish by the basket full. Not very sportsman like we were, but that fish tasted better than anything we had eaten for many months. The concussion you know had disrupted the equilibrium mechanism of the fish.

Don't try the above here... your equilibrium will be disrupted by a night stick.

Hints On Etiquette
Men meeting on the street usually shake hands. A man does not offer his hand to a lady unless she extends hers.

When the bride wears a street-length dress or suit and has only one attendant, the bridegroom wears a dinner dress and has only one attendant—a maid or matron of honor.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to readers including stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Tomorrow—Social Amities.

Words Of Wisdom
Never argue at the dinner table for the one who is not hungry always gets the best of the argument.

Then came "Malley Dais" which did something permanent to our eardrums.

New Records In County Contest

Palm Sunday Brings Out High Attendance In Sunday Schools

The splendid weather that has prevailed throughout the 8-weeks Pre-Easter increase campaign being sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, continued yesterday. Palm Sunday, and quite a number of the 70 participating Lawrence County Sunday schools set new records in attendance to date.

The Highland U. P., which is well organized and has held first place throughout the campaign, remained in first place after yesterday's figures were in, but with only a small margin to the good. The First Presbyterian who have been celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the occupancy of their present church building, had the highest attendance of the day, 639, and are now stepping on the heels of the energetic and aggressive Highland U. P. The First Methodist had a good day, and the Epworth Methodist stepped up a notch with their best attendance to date, and the lowest percentage in this group is over 1,400.

In the second group, the Central Presbyterian and Alliance Gospel Tabernacle remained in first and second place, respectively. The First Christian had a good day and moved up three notches. In the third group, the Wesley Methodist are in first place and the St. John's Lutheran in second place. The Croton Methodist had their best attendance and moved up into third place.

In the fourth group the St. Paul's Lutheran had their highest attendance and now have the highest New Castle percentage, 4,868. The Savannah Methodist had their best attendance for a long time, and stepped up into second place. In the fifth group, the First Congregational had their best attendance and are now over the 3,000 mark while the Bethany Lutheran is in second place.

The church attendance was the best to date, and in all probability will be better next Sunday. The Second U. P. are in the lead.

Below are the Sunday school attendances and total percentages of the five New Castle groups, the church attendance figures, and the incomplete returns from the Sunday school in the districts outside of New Castle.

In the class contest, four classes had high percentages for the day, with the Lindner class leading with a percentage of 254. The Lindner class is taught by Professor C. G. Lindner. The class leader on average percentages is the Flannery class taught by Dr. Wilbur Flannery. They have an average percentage of 209 for the contest which has been running nine weeks.

DOOMED SLAYER SEEKS TO DIE IN TESTS OF A BOMB

ine April 3 after overpowering guards who had been playing cards with the condemned pair.

Under Death Sentence

McFarland is under sentence to die June 14 for the brutal murder of Dorothy Berrum, pretty government girl.

The Guadalupe veteran's Knoxville attorney, W. N. Albert, yesterday wired President Truman in McFarland's behalf, seeking commutation of the death sentence on grounds of insanity.

Medley found guilty of the murder of Mrs. Nancy Boyer, red-haired divorcee, and linked to the slayings of at least two other red-headed women, was captured cringing in a waterfront sewer seven hours after his escape.

An old leg injury prevented Medley from keeping up with McFarland, who hitchhiked to Richmond, Va., and boarded a freight train there for Knoxville, which is only 20 miles from his boyhood home in the Great Smoky mountains.

2. Provide time extensions for veterans who were unable to keep up mortgage payments during their military service.

3. Liberalize privately financed mortgage loans to make available satisfactory veterans housing at a $35 to $45 monthly cost.

4. Encourage private construction of rental housing by a special program of yield insurance to be administered by the federal housing administration.

5. Give veterans occupancy preference in 500,000 new units of public low-rent housing and in government-owned permanent war housing projects.

Miss Patricia Moon, 474 Neshannock avenue, who has been confined to the Jameson hospital for the past few days, is showing signs of improvement.

Stelle Asserts Legion Will Not Drop Its Battle

community here, which is just a chip off the old block, has been fighting for better hospitals and other things which are best for the community state and nation. Its interests have not been entirely selfish. It has had many things of vital interest to the home community besides the medal awards for scholarship in schools, junior baseball, Boy Scouts, child welfare, etc. because we wanted to keep an America that was good for Americans, and to impress on the youth of the nation that America is great because of these things.

He praised the work of the auxiliary in Pennsylvania in their establishment of the Greenhouse building at Gettysburg hospital, where the disabled are being rehabilitated.

That the veteran of World War II is interested in the aims of the American Legion is shown by its present membership of 2,500,000, which is starting to be 4,000,000 by the time of the San Francisco convention. That means that three out of every four members will be World War II veterans.

Keep America Prepared

He urged that America keep itself prepared, even if it has to continue the draft of youths of 18, because we dare not let down now after we have won on the battlefield, the things we sent our boys into battle for. He stated that the American Legion urges a 17-week period of training for all youths between the high school and college age at a place near their home or the study at home under army supervision, of electronics, radar and the other new mechanics of warfare.

Commander Stelle was introduced by Department Commander James P. Murray, who urged the National American Legion to back the Pennsylvania department in its fight for better hospital facilities. He stated that the Veterans Administration, in its hospital program, has proposed 19 government hospitals, but that Pennsylvania, which furnished a million and a quarter men between 10 and 11 per cent of the total in the war, had been ignored in this selection.

He stated that the American Legion at the present time has a membership of 250,000 men and women in Pennsylvania and that it will continue to lead the nation in membership, when it proposes its own Paul H. Griffith of Uniontown for national commander in 1947 at the San Francisco convention in October.

Committee On Arrangements

The committee which arranged the program, Chester C. Sweeney, general chairman; Richard E. Rentz, vice chairman, and their aids in the various committees was praised for the fine program which had been arranged and the splendid manner in which it was carried out. During the dinner hour Chairman Sweeney introduced Vice Chairman Rentz, who presented Mayor John F. Haven, who welcomed the guests. Then in turn, Rentz introduced Walter P. Simpson of Ellwood City, who presented the banquet program. Musical numbers were given by Pave Parker, noted radio star, accompanied by Bernie Armstrong. The distinguished and special guests of the Legion were introduced at this time.

Hon. Robert E. McCreary, president.

Housing Units Are Constructed From Reynolds Barracks

Army Post Buildings Cut Into Sections, Packed For Shipment To Crowded Areas

SHARON, Pa. April 15.—Systematic razing of the post buildings at Camp Reynolds has been started in order to provide material for prefabricated houses for thickly populated cities of the East and Midwest.

One hundred men have so far been employed to work on the 2,000 buildings on the $25,000,000 Army post, abandoned since the first of the year.

The job includes more than just tearing down the buildings. According to a master plan, new doors and windows are being placed in each barracks and the buildings are then cut into sections and marked with the instructions for reconstruction. Sections from other buildings are used for inside partitions.

Orders have been received for 50 units in Jamestown, N. Y., 200 in Erie and 30 in Conneville. The work is being done by the Trimble company of Pittsburgh.

Hermitage Route Will Be Changed

SHARON, Pa. April 15.—Bids on relocation of a section of Pennsylvania Highway Route 18 at Hermitage east of here, will be opened April 30 by Pennsylvania Highway department.

The department plans to remove two sharp turns on Erie-Pittsburgh highway where it connects with Sharon-Mercer road. A new 22-foot section of highway is to be constructed from Hermitage south and will be in direct line with Route 18 coming from Erie.

It will join south more than two miles and into Route 18. At present Route 18 makes sharp turns on Mercer-Sharon road which it follows for nearly a mile.

This will be the second time this year the Highway department has received bids on reconstruction of the highway. In February the department rejected two bids, lowest of which was on an average of $100,000 a mile.

WADIVA MEAN UNLUCKY

That old "13" superstition took a beating in the marriage license bureau on Saturday. Just 13 young couples appeared and applied for marriage licenses.

No more photostatic copies of discharge will be sold in the office of Register and Recorder Orville Potter.

"When we started photostating discharges, many of the men wanted a copy or two for themselves, in addition to the recording photostatic copy which is free to them," said Mr. Potter.

At that time there were few facilities in the city for getting photostatic copies made. Today there are a number of commercial photographers who make copies for sale and I believe the county should not compete with private business. In the future, all discharges will be recorded free as they have in the past but no copies will be sold."

Spain Will Meet Shortage Of Beef With Horse Meat

MADRID, April 15.—(INS)—The Spanish government today authorized the slaughter of aged and injured horses for general consumption.

The decree was prompted by the critical shortage of beef. It limited horse slaughtering to animals unfit for heavy draft work, but stipulated they must be inspected and passed as fit for human consumption.

Horse-meat shops will be limited one for each hundred-thousand persons.

The government drive against hoarders and speculators, opened two weeks ago, has already brought charges against 500,000 persons, who have been fined a total of 761 million pesetas.

In Burgos alone, the government confiscated two million kilograms of hoarded wheat.

MARINE LEAGUE MEMBERS MEET

Discuss Plans for Welcome Home To Veterans And Plans For Memorial

Plans for the Welcome Home for New Castle veterans which will be held May 8 were discussed Sunday night April 14 at the meeting of the Gunners Sergeant Harry T. Burns detachment of the Marine Corps League in The Castleton hotel.

General Chairman Dale Lawson explained the plan and said the affair would be handled by a committee of representatives of the various veterans' groups, civic and fraternal organizations.

Another matter discussed was the proposed memorial to Lawrence Marines who were killed during the war. As a means of financing the memorial, the Marine band will be brought to New Castle on September 28.

DRIVER ARRESTED
Silvio Dell, of No. 8 Bank street, was arrested by Policemen Thompson and V. Cubellis last night on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. He will be charged with the offense before an alldaman according to Police Chief Robert D. Hanna.

The arrest was made after Dell reportedly steered his car left in front of one driven by Mrs. Phyllis Perry, 1416 Wilmington avenue at South Jefferson and Lawrence Sts. at 6:30 p. m. Sunday causing an accident.

M. G. Wood Honored By Spanish War Vets

John Osborn of Grove City was nominated for president; and Harry McClellan of Butler for second vice president.

Eleven were present at the district gathering from the Col. Daniel Leasure Camp and Auxiliary, which was addressed by Commander James G. Martz of Greensburg, and Past Department Commander Oscar Sybert of Butler.

At a caucus following the meeting, the group endorsed the candidacy of Past Department Commander John U. Schroyer for the Republican nomination for governor.

DOGS NEGLECTED BY SOME OWNERS

Complaints are being made that some dog owners are neglectful, leaving their animals roam wherever they please, becoming a nuisance to other residents especially during the time when folks are trying to raise vegetables and flowers in their gardens.

We have known of dogs going from house to house, garbage can after another, like tramps, seeking food and water. This winter, several dogs were even to be licking the ice on a fish pond to quench their thirst. Some of these neglected dogs being chained up, will make days and nights hideous with their yelps and howls.

In the matter of "being kind to animals" owners may help materially.

DIFFERENCES ON MERGER IN RED ZONE IN BERLIN

BERLIN, April 15.—(INS)—Informed Berlin sources today expected fresh Allied differences to arise from the merger of the Communist and Socialist parties in the Russian zone of the German capital.

The merger United Socialist party presumably will request recognition from the Allied Kommandant-ure. But that governing body already is considering the recognition of those Socialists who repudiated their party's leadership last week in favor of an Independent party.

A recent plebiscite of Socialists in the American, British and French zones of Berlin returned a huge majority in opposition to the merger.

Russian authorities, who support the merger, are expected to oppose recognition of the dissident Socialists. The U. S. delegate will be supported by the British and French in favor of recognition.

It was believed a compromise might be reached by recognizing both groups, and thus "legalizing" the split. This, in effect, would create a political gulf between the Russian sector and the sectors of the three western powers.

Lana Turner Denies Any Wedding Plans

NEW YORK, April 15.—(INS)—
Lana Turner, beautiful Hollywood blonde, did an about-face today to deny she was to wed Charles P.
Jagger, radio executive.

"Just a few hours earlier, Miss Turner was quoted as saying the nuptials might be held 'in a month.'"
Her latest announcement was more definite. She said:

"We're not even engaged. I have no ring. I have no definite idea of marriage."

Miss Turner and her daughter, Cheryl, who was born while the star was married to Stephen Crane, are stopping at the Sherry Netherlands hotel. Lana predicted:

"Charlie and I may be seen around a lot together."

Lady Nearly Choked While Lying In Bed— Due To Stomach Gas

One lady said a few days ago that she used to be afraid to go to bed at night. She was swollen with stomach gas, which always got worse when she went to bed, and the gas would rise up in her throat after she lay down and would nearly choke her. She couldn't lie flat.
Had to prop herself up on pillows.
Recently this lady got ERB-HELP, and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-

GOOD JOB— but what about MONEY?

A LOT OF THINGS go to make a good job. Interesting work, vacations, the people you work with. But the big consideration is money. Take-home pay—savings—provision for the future. Those are the things that count.

Compare the average job with a job in the Army.

Suppose you make $200 a month, when you're working.
After all the deductions have been taken out—and after paying for rent, groceries, clothes and doctors' bills—how much have you left?

Army pay starts at $50 a month for a Private. But a big proportion of men in the new peacetime Army are specialists, with higher grades and pay. Suppose you're a Technical Sergeant, making $114 a month base pay. You get your food, clothing, housing and medical and dental care free. Insurance, amusements and incidentals cost you far less. And if you enlist before July 1, 1946, you get a family allowance for your dependents. You'll have money to save!

With a yearly 30-day furlough with pay, you work eleven months and get paid for twelve. You get the best technical training in valuable trades and skills. Chances for advancement are excellent. On a 3-year enlistment you can choose your branch of service and overseas theater—and overseas service pays you 20% extra! If you enlist before October 6, 1946, upon discharge, you'll have the privileges of the GI Bill of Rights.

The educational privileges alone after a 3-year enlistment are worth more than $2000—48 months of college, trade or business school—free! Where else could a young man save that much in 3 years?

The award was given to acknowledge of Maj. Ivey's heroic trip behind Japanese lines in which he succeeded in obtaining information of great military value.

British Troops Replace Strikers; Handling Produce

LONDON, April 15.—(INS)—Two hundred British soldiers were called to the Smithfield market to load butter, eggs and bacon today, following a strike of produce workers, but their appearance precipitated a walkout by meat handlers.

Smithfield market supplies produce to 19,000 shops and the meat-handling strike may involve 3,000 workers supply much of London's meat.

The meat-handlers said they would return to work if the troops are removed.

However, observers believed that the war office may send additional troops to take over the meat handlers' jobs, inasmuch as the meat strike would greatly jeopardize London's supply.

The number of troops working on produce-loading was increased by 800 this afternoon. The strikers stood by most of them in silence but sometimes uttering ironical cheers.

Many Packinghouse Workers Are Idle

Mass Back-To-Work Demonstration Is Planned At Chicago Stockyards

CHICAGO, April 15.—(INS)—Members of the CIO-United Packinghouse Workers Union were ready to stage a mass back-to-work demonstration today at the Chicago stockyards.

The demonstration was planned in protest against the layoff of 5,000 packinghouse workers at the yards due to the meat shortage. A total of 25,000 packinghouse workers were reported idle over the nation.

About 50 union delegates from Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City and other meat centers plan to leave for Washington after the demonstration to press their demands for relief from the meat situation.

Their announced object is to ensure an adequate supply of meat and jobs.

They also will demand that OPA regulations be extended and tightened and that 20,000 packinghouse workers be called back to work.

Wilson and Co., one of the big five packers, announced last night that 15 Chicago packers bought only about 25 per cent of the cattle sold in the city the first four days of last week.

Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the company's board, said:

"The other 75 per cent went to buyers for plants outside Chicago, at prices substantially higher than Chicago packers could pay for cattle and keep costs at or below ceilings."

The only conclusion is that a very large percentage of the cattle moved through illegitimate channels."

St. Mary's Sodality Elects May Queen

Margaret O'Leary To Crown Blessed Virgin Mary On Sunday, May 19

Members of the St. Mary's Sodality met in the church auditorium on Thursday evening for their regular business meeting at which their prefect, Miss Margaret O'Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Leary of 114 South Scott street, was elected to reign as Queen of May ceremonies. It will be held Sunday afternoon, May 19, in St. Mary's church. Attendants in the queen's court will be Ursula Rorbottom, Peggy Murphy, Honora Cunningham, Nell and Pee Valley, Mary Lowers, Mary Irene O'Connor, Greta Louie and Dolores O'Leary.

Fr. Ignatius Koller, director, reminded the sodalists in his brief instruction that spring, the time of housecleaning is an excellent time to clean and freshen-up for the good and health of soil, most especially during Holy Week, in preparation for Easter.

Lawrence County Union of Sodality Day of Recollection scheduled to begin with mass at 10 on Sunday, April 28, in St. Joseph's church will be attended.

Eleanor Valley of the Eucharistic committee explained the April general mass intention—the increase of religious vocations. "Devotion to Our Blessed Mother," a sodality rule was noted, followed by an enlightening talk on this month's character builder—Charity. Sodality will prepare a spiritual bouquet for Most Rev. Bishop H. C. Boyle, bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese, who will celebrate his silver jubilee in the bishopric this summer.

The following volunteered to care for the altars during the next month: Patty Bevan, Ann Heaney, Glennia Nene, Jean Lockley, Grace Charlotte and Kay Schooley, Nell Valley, Peggy Murphy and Honora Cunningham.

On Holy Thursday, April 18, all sodalists will meet at 7:30 p. m. for their Hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, where devotions will be held in common.

Mary Lowers gave the rosary intention of the month. "For the Success of the UNO," and spoke on the Feast of Our Lady's Seven Dolors.

Greta Louie of the Apostolic committee presented the following three steps for consideration during Holy Week: presence for all Holy Week services; spending an hour with Christ on Holy Thursday; and beseeching Christ through Mary that the world may have peace for which our Holy Father constantly prays.

Mary Irene O'Connor of the Catholic Truth committee emphasized the significance of the first Friday, first Saturday and first Sunday, as they pertain to sodalists.

For worldwide Sodality Day, May 12 of this year, Peg O'Leary will represent the sodality in the May crowning held in St. Paul's Cathedral in Pittsburgh.

A very interesting explanation of the ceremony of crowning women was given by Vice-Prefect Ursula Rorbottom.

The next meeting of the sodality will be held May 9 at 7:30 p. m.

DESTROY NESTS TO GET RID OF WINGED TERMITES

By watching winged termites, now swarming, their nests in the ground often can be located and these destroyed by dousing them with a mixture of one part coal tar creosote and three parts light weight fuel oil or kerosene.

The swarming termites probably soon will be starting a new colony, but the original nest remains intact. New colonies start where food touches the ground, as with fence posts, steps and low wooden buildings, all of which give the termites the cellulose which is necessary to sustain them.

Do not get the treatment on plant roots or the plants will be killed. To prevent additional damage, removal of all wood infested with the termites and replace it with wood treated with this mixture. Use metal and concrete for replacing basement flooring and window sills.

Radar 'Homes' Giant Transport To Safe Landing

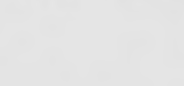

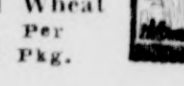

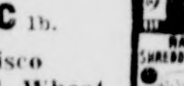

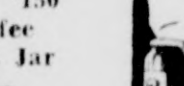

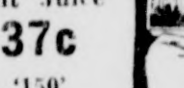

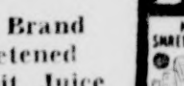

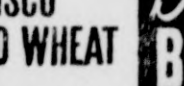

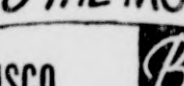

TOKYO, April 13.—(INS)—A new radar device was tested today with saving a huge Pan American Constellation from possible disaster when the airplane became lost in a dangerous overcast while trying to land at Atsugi airfield outside Tokyo.

The 90,000-pound, four-engined plane was "talked" to the ground by means of the precision device which was developed near the end of the war.

The plane's pilot, S. F. Robbins of Palo Alto, Calif., said he might have been forced to circle and run out of gas if he had not been picked up by the radar at 2,000 feet above the field.

Ground crewmen said the overcast was so dense and the rain so heavy that the big plane was invisible until its wheel touched the field in landing.

Don't Feed Squirrels Salted Food Says Fox

Gwen Fox, city forester, has been informed by Dr. T. M. Shaffer of Euclid avenue that there are three or four squirrels affected with mange still folk insist on feeding the rodents with roasted peanuts, salted peanuts, bread and the like. This kind of ration tends to create the skin and cause running sores.

Mr. Fox says that in the warm weather this condition may put the bushy tailed fellows in an irritable mood and embolden sufficiently to attack children that may be in their vicinity.

Owen advises that squirrels should not be fed food containing salt. Corn, apples, wheat, buckwheat, unflowered seeds are good palatable food for these little fellows.

Only Americans are free to get the unbiased truth if they can find a commentator who hasn't any bias.

Cancer Control Drive In County Beginning Today

Association Aims To Raise $12,000
Of National Quota In Lawrence County

Today marks the opening of the fund-raising campaign for the national control of one of the nation's worst diseases—cancer.

Goal in the effort in Lawrence county is $12,000, with the national total set at $12,000,000. Considering the magnitude of the problem, the Control Society is asking very little indeed. Reliable sources place the annual loss to this dread affliction at $2,250,000,000. And that doesn't take into consideration the toll of human suffering and disfigurement from the disease.

This will be seen about the cities, in the stores and other accessible places. If you wish to make a contribution by check, mail it to the American Cancer Society, Pennsylvania Division, 308 State Theatre building, Harrisburg, or mail it to the local headquarters, Lawrence Savings and Trust building, East Washington street.

Volunteers Needed
Monetary contributions are not the only things in this drive. There is a need for donated time. Volunteer your services by reporting to your local branch during the effort.

It is the hope of the Society to raise one million of the national quota in the drive right here in the state. Of this total, sixty percent will be used for work in the commonwealth. The remaining 40% will be turned over to the national program for the use of the country as a whole in the campaign against this enemy.

We must fight hard, everlastingly, to remove the shadow of this destroyer from our lives.

Give of your money. Give of your time. So that you, that others, may live, give.

No Housing Lack; Claims Whole Town

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—(INS)—Most people these days are contented with any old shack they can call home, but Vernon N. Johnston today lay claim to a whole town.

The town with a population of 500 and a state hospital is named Alviso and it spreads over 2,000 acres in Santa Clara county, California.

Johnston, a jobless West Philadelphia school teacher, says the property belongs to him through an original grant by the Mexican government in 1838 to his great-great-grandfather.

However, California authorities told Johnston he'd have to talk with a title insurance firm about the whole thing.

Blonde's Death Termed Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—(INS)—The death of Virginia Hepburn, 21-year-old blonde whose body was found on a railing outside a San Francisco hotel Tuesday, was listed as a suicide.

Two army officers—Lt. Henry A. Blankenship of Atlanta and Lt. Stephen Ondrusk of Birmingham, N. Y., who were with her a short time before her death testified before the jury.

Blankenship described his futile attempt to clutch at the girl as she leaped scantily clad from the seventh floor hotel room he and Ondrusk occupied.

BURGESS MCGOWAN TO MAKE LAST HITCH TO KENTUCKY DERBY

Jim McGowan, dapper 87 year old gentleman of the road and former burgess of Prospect, said today that his forthcoming "thumb journey" to the Kentucky Derby will be his last long trip because "hitchhiking" is getting too dangerous.

McGowan, who said his 300,000 mile thumbing experience makes him the country's most widely traveled hitchhiker, decided to give up his craft, because six accidents and three robberies were enough.

His success at getting aboard automobiles, McGowan said, not only is a result of his age, but also his "dapper attire and smooth technique."

Testimonial Banquet Saturday Night For K. Pulaski Champions

Hear Nationally Famous Grover Washabaugh and Chick Davies Speak

Attorney Walter Kieler Is Toastmaster; Fitting Climax To Great Season

Not only did the K. Pulaski "Big Five" win the city-county championship in basketball this year, but Saturday night a gigantic testimonial banquet was tendered the team by the K. Pulaski club and it ranks at the top in the banquet circuit. Some 60 persons sat down to the well-laden tables gaily decorated for the occasion, shortly after 8:30 o'clock.

The invocation was intoned by the Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński of Madonna church, following which the women brought in steaming plates of chicken done to the turn, flanked by huge plates of "gobiabli", a favorite Polish dish, mashed potatoes, vegetable salad and lots of other "goodies" including, as Sheriff Frank Coen can attest, to delicious cake. The meal was grade AA from start to finish.

The following ladies were instrumental in preparing and serving the banquet of champions: Mrs. Joseph Hnat, Cecilia Boron, Alice Wilegowski, Mrs. Adam Zielinski, Dorothy Stankiewicz, Leona Pionka, Josephine Krupa and Mrs. Genevieve Jendryski.

Walter Kieler Toastmaster

Following the serving of the dinner Dr. Stanley Zarembo gave a short well chosen talk, then introduced the toastmaster of the evening, Attorney Walter Kieler, a recently returned naval officer. Kieler handled the difficult role with all the aplomb of his station in life as an attorney, interspersing his introductions with witty remarks. Kieler had complete command of the banquet from this point on.

Previous to introducing the first speaker Attorney Kieler gave a short talk, in which he congratulated the K. Pulaski team on winning the championship and expressed his gratitude for having been chosen to toastmaster such a stupendous occasion.

Grover Washabaugh Speaks

First of the two famous nationally known coaches to speak was Grover Washabaugh of Westminster college, former coach of two state schoolboy championship teams at Pittsburgh South High. Washabaugh began in his usual manner by putting the assembled guests at ease by some of his bone-tickling stories. He offered his congratulations to the K. P. "Big Five" on their recent achievement in winning the championship.

On the serious side Washabaugh spoke of the value of physical education in colleges and schools, then said that every student should have a part in athletics of some kind. He stressed a community athletic program. Other highlights of the very interesting speech were: Learn to be loyal have team spirit, adopt a code of sportsmanship. He finished his talk by telling the assembled crowd of his high regard for Chick Davies as a coach and man.

Chick Davies Gives Talk

Charles "Chick" Davies, former coach at Duquesne university and currently coaching at Homestead High where he turned out a 27-game winner this year, losing the state title to Allentown, was the next speaker and drew an ovation. Davies, as Washabaugh and doubtless his listeners at ease with a few stories, then launched into his talk by offering his congratulations to the K. P. "Big Five" on their championship.

Davies recalled that New Castle was his birthplace, being born on Home street a "few years" ago, as he put it. Davies stressed the need of larger playing floors in the end of the state, as a crying need. He spoke only briefly of his high school team, saying that he had enjoyed his associations at Homestead but that he was seriously considering returning to Duquesne university in the near future. His talk was well delivered and well received.

Trophy Is Presented

Next on the program was a short talk by Charles P. "Bugs" Walther, News sports writer, who at the conclusion of his remarks presented the stunning championship trophy donated by Jack Gerson, local jeweler, to Al Gonet, coach and manager of the K. P. "Big Five" for having won the recent city-county championship at the "Y" tourney. The presentation was made by Mr. Walther in behalf of James Dart, attorney director and "Y" physical director, who was unable to attend the banquet.

Sheriff of Lawrence County Frank Coen, a guest, was called on for a few remarks, following which Al Gonet, coach and manager, spoke of the past season and how proud he was to be at the head of a championship team. Gonet said that good sportsmanship prevailed all year on the team. He gave a hint of a new setup at the K. Pulaski hall and larger gym, Gonet stated that he hoped to be able to pilot another championship team at the K. P. hall next year.

Tribute To Departed

Prior to closing his fine talk Gonet introduced to the assembled guests a wounded war veteran, Joseph Boron, who attended in a wheelchair. He was seriously wounded in the African campaign early in the war.

As a closing gesture Toastmaster Kieler called on everyone to stand and honor the three K. Pulaski club athletes who paid the supreme sacrifice in the late world war—Henry Mateja, "Broncho" Teles and Joseph Kucharski.

Athletes Get Awards

Awards and pictures were given the following: Stanley Wasik, Don Hedderston, Joe Cooper, Fred Wimer, Eddie Strausbaugh, Bus Davis, Joe Hnat, Johnny Vargo, Stanley Pionka, Wilbur Pat Patterson. The presentations were made by Coach and Manager Al Gonet.

A short prayer by the Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński closed the banquet with everyone satisfied that this had been an evening well spent in honoring the great championship K. Pulaski "Big Five".

Universal To Use

Washington Field

Universal Pottery will utilize the Washington High baseball field this summer, along with the American Legion team, it was announced today by Manager "Dutch" Hill. The team will work out Tuesday at 5:30 o'clock, weather permitting.

The Universals had intended to use Centennial field but ran into difficulties and will not be able to get the field into proper shape for play. Earl Moffatt of the Legion kindly consented to allow the Universals to use the Washington field, which will mean that the North Hill fans will have a lot of baseball to watch this summer.

Players Are Not Going To Enjoy Mexican Baseball

Dizzy Dean Says 'U. S. Players Are Going To Find Conditions Very Bad'

DENVER, April 16—(INS)—American big league baseball players aren't going to like it down in Mexico.

That's the word today from Dizzy Dean, one-time white-ball artist of the St. Louis Cardinals who came to Denver to speak before the Old Timers Baseball Association.

Dean recalled experiences playing amateur ball below the Rio Grande. He said:

"We had to change our clothes in a weed patch and we found no showers, no grass infield, no nothing."

Players who succumbed to the lure of Mexican money will learn one thing, he asserted:

"They're supposed to be big stars, and if they don't hit a home every time, up they might as well start running." Diz explained that the Mexican fans like their game too seriously for him.

Auto Racer Is Killed Sunday

Spectator Injured As Result Of Auto Race At Williams Grove Near Carlisle

CARLISLE, Pa., April 15—(INS)—A racing car driver was dead today and a speedway spectator was suffering severe injuries at the Carlisle hospital as a result of accidents on a race track at Williams Grove Park Sunday.

Joseph J. Hrytenko, 34, of Ellensburg, N. J., died at the hospital last night of a fractured neck and other injuries sustained when his racer slammed into another car and upset.

Spectator Struck

Samuel B. Slavall, 39, of New Freedom, a spectator, was struck by a racing car as he walked across the track after what he believed to be the end of the race. He was treated for severe shock, a compound fracture of the right leg and lacerations.

Ador lapped the field on the 16th turn and went on to win before more than 41,000 spectators.

Incidentally, Joe is one man who is somewhat of a vocalist. In fact, according to Joe's friends, he could sing "four voices." He belonged to that one well known quartet, called "The Buzzers." If recollection serves correctly Arch Cubbison, Bunny Rosenbloom and Benny Kite completed the "four-some." If a bass voice was vacant Joe sang bass. If a tenor was missing, Aquara sang tenor and so on. In those days it was not strange to hear a quartet at midnight singing some of the old songs as the boys wended their ways homeward. Joe is here as Arch, Bunny is not a radio operator in Butler and Benny is director of music for a Detroit station.

A few moments later Here & There met an ex-serviceman who knows what it is to fish not only here but around Guadalupe. We're speaking now of Bill Linton with whose grand-daddy, Jim Dugert, the electrician, Here & There has often fished. He told us of being with several others and hauling a 750 pound shark out of the water and in speaking of Baracuda he described them as akin to a "miniature muskie" and said he had been told there were a human to fall into a school, of say, 100 Baracuda the human wouldn't last 15 seconds. They have teeth an inch long and according to some of our other informants on Baracuda, they also use their sharp fins to cut one up. Bill can scarcely wait until he gets out along one of the creeks to catch a few trout, the season having opened today.

Were Here & There to type the names of all of the professional, business and industrial men of the city whose desks are vacant today because of trout season, he would have a couple of paragraphs. When Ken Beggie shoots April 21 at the LCRA farm he will fire 1,000 rounds of all kinds of ammunition from a 22 up to a 35 calibre big game cartridge. Ken is known internationally and has appeared before 2,500,000 members of America's armed forces at over 300 military centers, stressing the efficiency of America's military small arms in the hands of efficient marksmen. He is being brought here by Virgil Richards, both being affiliated with the Remington Arms Company at the request of the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association.

Commissioner Believes Season Starting Tuesday Will Be Greatest In Game's History

CINCINNATI, O., April 15—(INS)—Baseball's High Commissioner A. B. Chandler predicted today that the 1946 season would be "the greatest in the game's history."

The game's czar, in a pre-opening statement to International News Service, declared:

"It is my hope that we will complete in this sport on America's playing fields in memory of our star-warrior sons who gave their lives in the war so that Americans, including those who love our national game, may enjoy freedom of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Baseball Popular

Chandler said he based his prediction on change he saw and heard in a tour of the clubs' spring training camps.

He added that this season in America would "provide the basis for further development of the game's popularity not only at home but throughout the world."

The high commissioner will be in Atlanta, Ga., today for the opening of the Southern League.

Tuesday he will participate in the opening game ceremonies at Cincinnati.

Stanley Will Try For Tenpin Title

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 15—(INS)—John Stanley of Cleveland, winner of the 1942 of the national singles bowling crown, will roll for another try at the championship today in the 43rd annual American Bowling Congress classic.

Stanley annexed the 1942 title at Columbus, O., with a sensational 756 total. If he succeeds this year he will be the first entrant ever to repeat.

St. Ed Easter of Wakefield, N. H., is the current singles pace-setter behind a 715 series posted on the fourth day of play.

Jim Jeffries 71 Years Old Today

BURBANK, Cal., April 15—(INS)—Former world's heavyweight boxing champion, Jim Jeffries, today celebrates his 71st birthday and his recovery from a paralytic stroke that nearly proved fatal two months ago.

The veteran ring warrior, up and around again after five weeks in bed, although still partly paralyzed, invited a few of his old cronies to his ranch home for the occasion.

CLEVELAND, April 15—(INS)—The New York Giants took on Ed Carnett, former White Sox outfielder, first baseman and pitcher, for a trial today. Carnett was released by Cleveland yesterday along with another southpaw hurler, Harry Eisenstat.

Drexel's new lacrosse coach, Percy Belfield, and his brother, John, both played the sport at Penn State.

NOT so long ago Joe Aquara met Battling Terry, erstwhile lightweight, now content to rest upon laurels earned decades ago and who, at one time, claimed the lightweight championship of western Pennsylvania. "Do you know me?" Aquara asked the ex-fighter, now an employe of the United Engineering & Foundry Company. "I recall your face but I am sorry I cannot recall your name," the former pugilist replied. "The last time I met you I was in the corner of Charlie Chip the night he defeated you in the Strand theater in Long avenue," Aquara reported. "Gee, I'm glad to see you again," said Terry, the information refreshing his memory of one of the last fights the Battler had. In fact, it was fought when Terry was on the lag end of his career. Aquara and Terry spent a pleasant hour together, going over the pugilistic happenings of several decades ago and last night Joe told Here & There who was in Terry's corner that night. "There have been a lot of fighters in this district, but when Battling Terry was going good and in condition there were few better lightweights in the United States."

Incidentally, Joe is one man who is somewhat of a vocalist. In fact, according to Joe's friends, he could sing "four voices." He belonged to that one well known quartet, called "The Buzzers." If recollection serves correctly Arch Cubbison, Bunny Rosenbloom and Benny Kite completed the "four-some." If a bass voice was vacant Joe sang bass. Lou Sutherland is coming along fine in the Jameson Memorial hospital and his leg is out of the cast, following an injury received while at work.

One of those who likes his athletics is Laurence S. Rodgers, the well known B. & O. throttleman. While he has witnessed thrills on athletic fields those who have been permitted to ride with him in the cab have also experienced thrills. In fact is the dream of every small boy and some up-in-years men to ride in the cab of a 1946 engine.

Lawrence County Umpires Association rates for this year are: Four dollars straight for City League games and four dollars for seven innings games and five dollars for nine innings games in Lawrence County League games. The extra dollar charged against Lawrence County loop teams is because of travel involved.

Leo Hill, president of the Lawrence County Umpires Association conferred several days ago with Elmer Daily, president of the Mid-Atlantic League and Jack Durler of the Butler Yankees. They told Hill they would like very much to have New Castle represented in the Mid-Atlantic if not this year, then during some early future year.

City officials will today survey Dean Park preparations to laying out a baseball field. Other city equipment is being worked on the different league team grounds here also. Indications point to Dean field operating before the summer is along advanced because of cooperation between baseball men, city council and recreation board officials.

Seek Safe Way To Sell 10,000 Pairs Of Nylons

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—(INS)—A San Francisco department store was trying to find a way today to get rid of 10,000 pairs of nylon stockings without causing a riot.

The store, Weinsteins, is determined the city's bare-legged working girls will have the hosiery, but already two schemes to distribute them have backfired.

Thursday the first attempt to sell the stockings after hours ended in a near riot when 15,000 women—and some men—crowded Market street for nearly an hour, snarling evening traffic. Police cancelled the sale.

Then store officials announced the heads of business firms should submit lists of employees needing nylons. The lists poured in by mail, telegram and phone, bringing all other business to a virtual standstill. That plan was hastily called off.

Store officials are looking for a sales plan so they can sell nylons to the poor working girl.

Hints Scientists May Forsake Atom For Other Research

ATLANTA, Ga., April 15.—(INS)—A prediction that this country's leading scientists and physicists may forsake experimentation with atomic energy and turn to other fields of research was projected today by Dr. P. G. Slack of Vanderbilt University.

Dr. Slack, who worked on development of atomic bomb formula at Columbia university during the war, criticized the government's plans to supervise research in the atomic energy field. His remarks were made before the southeastern section of the American Physicists' society meeting in Atlanta. He said:

"If we (scientists) can get any information out of the present government security, I think science in general in this country will progress rapidly."

"If the present security holds, I see physicists leaving the field of atomic energy research for other subjects."

Dr. Slack gave the Army full credit for the final successful development of the atomic bomb dropped on Japan to end the war.

City Taxpayers Get Discount Through April

Bernard N. Hanlon, treasurer of the city, reported that many taxpayers have taken advantage of the two per cent discount on city taxes permitted under a law passed by the state legislature in 1945 and it is anticipated, he added, that now will take advantage of the act's provisions and pay their 1946 city tax before the period ends April 30. Mr. Hanlon further stated that tax duplicates for 1945 have not been closed and unpaid school taxes will be received until May 4, after which date all unpaid school taxes will be filed with the commissioners of Lawrence county. All unpaid 1945 city taxes will be accepted at the office of the city treasurer until June 29, he concluded.
